THE STORIES OF WITNESSES

They Told of Hooper's Movements

With His Crazy Wife.

THE LOUISVILLE BRIDGE STORY.

G. A. Greiner Tells of the Deceased

Coming to His House Dripping Wet.

On Several Occasions She Accused

Her Husband of Trying to Murder

Her.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 8.—Yesterday in the trial of Hooper, Judge Delmonico decided to admit the story of attempted drowning as evidence. This is a very important declaration for the Crown.

Joseph E. Greiner, an important witness in the case, had died of pneumonia. It was he who opened the door of Mrs. Delmonico's house at Louisville, at two o'clock in the evening of the 10th of September, when he had been thrown off the railway bridge into the River de Loup. This is the second important witness who has given the story of the case in the city and will watch the trial until the close. He feels keenly the position his case is placed in.

G. A. Greiner, merchant, Louisville, testified that he was the brother-in-law of the deceased, and that he had been deceased at Louisville, September 10, and about 1:30 a.m. He heard some groaning and went to the door and found a woman there. He asked her who she was and she told him she was the wife of the deceased. He then went to the back door and found the body of the deceased. He then went to the front door and found the body of the deceased.

At this point Mr. Greiner said that

BEHAVIOR, WEDNESDAY JAN. 10

LOCAL OPINION IN TAXATION.

The idea of giving municipalities a greater latitude in the matter of taxation is being urged in various quarters, and has been carried into law in some Provinces of the Dominion.

The matter is being taken up in the Province of Ontario in an organized way. A form of petition has been prepared, asking the Ontario Government for local Option in taxation. A copy of this is being sent to every municipality, accompanied by a circular which sets forth reasons in favor of the petition. Following is an extract from the circular:

Let us speak by the experience of other British subjects in this matter.

"The colony of New Zealand has within the last few years greatly reduced taxation on buildings and on other improvements; and the result is that the colony is now very prosperous, having escaped the financial disasters which overtook its neighbors the colonies of Australia."

"The law of Manitoba expressly forbids the taxation of improvements on farms and gardens."

"The ordinances of our North West Territories also forbid the taxation of buildings, improvements, or personal property. In any municipality that has a building."

"In British Columbia, all municipalities have the power to sue for relief. They have the option of relieving improvements partly or wholly from taxation. Many municipalities have availed themselves of this power. So satisfactory has the measure proved to be, that the Legislature of British Columbia has gone further and last year passed an Act, which prohibits any municipality from assessing improvements at more than fifty cents on the dollar, whilst providing that the land must be assessed at its full value."

"We desire to conclude to call your attention to the wonderful character of the petition we are asking your Council to approve. It merely prays that municipalities have the option of relieving improvements if they wish. Surely Ontario should have the liberty of trying a plan which has proved so successful elsewhere."

Death's Untimely Call.

On Monday, at noon, Mr. F. H. Boldrick, son of Mr. J. A. Boldrick, died at his home, Church St., at the age of twenty-five years. He was a native of Washington, D.C., some seven weeks ago, his health being very poor. Since his arrival numerous remedies had been tried, and all that medical skill could do was tested. All this was of no avail, and death came as a relief. He was a very kind and liked by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance and his death has been a great loss to the family. LEAVING EXAMINATION.

High school masters and pupils throughout the province will be glad to hear that the curriculum for the university matriculation and junior leaving examination is at last approaching a solution. There have been many meetings held to discuss the subject, and it is understood that the following scheme will be presented to the Senate for adoption:—The compulsory subjects will be Latin, mathematics, English history and geography, chemistry and natural physics, and one modern language. The option will be allowed between Greek and the other modern languages. There is also an alternative scheme. In this, chemistry and natural physics will be left to the compulsory list, and the option will be between Greek on the one hand, and the other modern language, together with the chemistry, etc., on the other. It is proposed to drop arithmetic altogether, as well as English grammar and rhetoric. These subjects are regarded, however, as the preliminary examination, which examination every candidate will be required to pass.

Our village has again quieted down after the excitement and holiday feeling. We have now many old friends within the last few weeks, and many have passed away forever, leaving sorrowing friends behind them. Life grips has done its work in the separation of old friends in this locality, and many more are being separated today, and are getting equivalent—The funeral of Mrs. D. Sullivan took place yesterday, and a large number of relatives and friends. She was the mother of Mr. J. Sullivan, born in the town of Sullivan, and was very much respected. The last few days, in sending off railway men, many hundreds are daily passing over the track to their destination. We were much pleased a few days since to meet our friends Mr. and Mrs. Ral, of St. Peter's, who were here visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Bailey. The townly collection of Luss, Mr. John Arnold, reports that the payment of the taxes for the year was made yesterday, and settled on the business in connection with the taxes, which gave great satisfaction to parties who were employed on this structure.

QUEEN WEDDING.

Mr. James Clarke, of Thorlow, and his wife Celestine the British Anniversary of Their Marriage.

A most pleasing event transpired on the 16th January, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Clarke, of Thorlow, being the celebration of the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. About 50 guests had assembled to pay respect to the aged couple, who had lived their whole life in the vicinity where they now reside. The ceremony was a most interesting one, the celebration being Mr. E. Irvine and Miss Catherine F. Irvine, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bennett, all of Thorlow. The bride was assisted by Miss L.
Hough, while the groom was supported by Mr. C. Bennett, brother of the bride. The bride looked charming. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Gar-diner. Amongst other proceedings, two couplets were recited. Reciting the purpose for which they had met, the assembly organized itself into a society, and nominally elected the Rev. Dr. Gardiner president, and J. W. Ross, ex Dep. Mayor of Thorlow, secretary. After a few well-chosen remarks by Dr. Gardiner, he called upon the secretary to read the following address to Mr. and Mrs. Clarke:

EXTENSIVE PLEASURES.—We meet you today to present our grateful and affectionate greetings.
Your Anniversary is an event of very pleasant interest to us. We give hearty thanks to our Heavenly Father, who has spared you to each other, to your son, his wife, and your daughters in your old age and to us, so many happy years. What you have been doing in the community or the country, and in general well in clearing, planting, cultivating and gathering in building and improving in education, temperance, benevolence and loyalty, commands our admiration. It is a commendation that your united names select for your pure home and prosperous and happy life, and the noble home of Mrs. Clarke in its adoption so congenial to Mr. Clarke; and that your united names may share more and more with each other. In recalling your early years, we think of the Christian faith with you to celebrate the jubilee of your marriage, and to be a source of joy to you continued to wife together to the house of God, always wisely true and devoted to the cause of the Kingdom of heaven.

JAMES GARDINER, President.
W. Ross, Secretary.

In behalf of the guests, who celebrate this happy Anniversary, we present to you the following address:

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke made a very feeling reply, after which all sat down to a beautiful dinner, which was served in the most thoroughly arranged table laden with luxuries of the season.

J. W. Ross, Jas. Haldrie, Mrs. E. Bennett, Miss E. Bennett, of Corbyville, all spoke in glowing terms of the beautiful society that gathered for their intercourse, while all present united in wishing to their best the aged couple may live to celebrate their diamond wedding.

The presents were both costly and numerous.

We append the following letters, which explain themselves:

My Dear Mr. and Mrs. James Clarke: I sincerely regret I am prevented from being with you personally to congratulate you on the anniversary of your wedding.
Please accept my best congratulations, and may you yet be spared in happiness and prosperity.

Please accept the accompanying Bible as a small memento of the happy occasion. I remain—
Yours sincerely,
H. CORRY.

The gift is a fine volume with morocco binding.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clarke:
I regret that it will be impossible for Mrs.
Haldrie and myself to be with you in celebrating the fifteenth anniversary of your married life.

Business engagements, over which I have no control, prevent me from being with you on this happy day.

Wishing you both peace and prosperity for many years to come.
Respectfully,
W. F. HUBSON.

Dinner, order and greetings exchanged, the Rev. Doctor called upon the guests to unite in singing the Doxology. The assembly then separated, each feeling they had been privileged to witness a present to be honored to their venerable friends.

POLICE COURT.
Matters Grave and Gay before the F. M.
There was an unusually large docket at the police court this morning.

This, Hyland, Downey Hood and Geo.
Bates were before the court charged with stealing on the highway. This is a dangerous practice and the boys have been repeatedly warned to desist. The Magistrate allowed to go.

Mr. Boyle was charged by one Ompaign with assault. After some sly and amusing evidence had been given by both sides the case was dismissed.

Joe Brown was up to answer to a charge of harboring on Sunday. The case was adjourned until to-morrow.

Spry re. Hay was an action for alleged injury to property. Case dismissed, the defendant to pay costs.

Leander's Medicine Moves the Bowels Each

He is a Pedestrian.

The boy, Roy Diamond, reported missing yesterday, has been found. High Constable Johnson in company with the fellow went out to Mr. Henry Herby's, in Huntingdon, where the boy had worked last summer, and he was there. The boy is a pedestrian if his story is true. He says he went to the G.T.R. depot on the morning he left home and took the railway track to West Huntingdon and thence across country to Mr. Herby's, a distance of twenty-one miles, and although it rained heavily all the way he made the distance in about half a day.

Section of Officers.
The annual District meeting of L.O. L.
Dist. No. 2, B. Hastings, was held in Thorlow on the 15th inst. The following officers were elected, and installed by Bro. Wm. White, Past District Master: W. Beady, D. M.; Jas. Conley, D. M.; W. H. Haldrie, Chap.; T. E. Elliott, R. S.; Edmund Morton, P.
J. A. B. Haldrie, J. W. Elliott, D. O. J. D. Haldrie, Lecturers.

The meeting was very harmonious and everything passed off pleasantly. A vote of thanks was accorded the visiting officers.

The World's Fair.
At Chicago during a big crowd—quite a big crowd are calling the Rotonde Organ made by Lane, Wood & Co. Montreal.

There was a slim-dig dance on Pineside St. last night and the outcome was a fight. Harry Hayes went down to quell the disturbance, and the principals used him coming took his lumps. One of them had his eye cut off and in the excitement they were forgotten and there were now at the police station. The parties are known and will be brought before the Court.

The committee who have in charge the museum project in connection with the Institute and Library Association would like to hear from anyone who has been in the house for sale or those who have specimens of minerals which they would be willing to donate to the museum.

N. Pouton is the treasurer of the Association and application can be made to him.

Correspondence.

Whilst correspondence will be accorded space for the expression of their views on topics of public interest, it must be in all cases understood that the views expressed are simply those of the correspondents themselves.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

Sir,—P.P.A. has given me some points of information in his letter of the 10th inst. for which I wish to thank him. But I hope he will kindly excuse me if I refuse to be dragged into a dispute over ancient history. A discussion over the mistakes of Adam may be of interest to the public, and even an inquiry into the death of the late lamest Julius Caesar may decide forever the disputed point whether he was run through by the sword of his great rival or chartered under the wing of his angelic law. A careful search through the home of Arctonius Ward may settle the momentous question whether Bishop fell sooner or later, and so on to the end of the chapter. But I will ask my friend P.P.A. as I am rather busy just now, to allow all these questions to lay on the table—our attention would say—for the present. Then and then his willingness to grant this request, he can scarcely expect me to deal just now with the question why any government, ancient or modern, Catholic or Protestant, expelled from its dominions some mysterious "society," which he does not name. It is the Jesuit Society he refers to, I can only say that from the earliest ages of the world waves of fanat-ism, such as we are experiencing here in Canada now under the P. A., have been felt by nearly all governments and peoples.
The Jesuits have been frequently objects of attack, and expulsion often followed, as the case in Germany under Bismarck; but when the sober sense of the people returned, justice had been generally done, and the society was reestablished, as happened in Germany the other day, when the order was allowed to return. In the whole Dominion of Canada there are somewhere between 30 and 40 Jesuits, and these are re-strictly occupied with their religious duties.
They have never been known to interfere in politics. What nonsense it is, therefore, for P.P.A. to talk of this country being "dominated" by that society! It is to combat 30 or 40 men, who have never been known to interfere in any shape or manner in politics, that all the machinery, bigotry and fanaticism of the P. A. Society is put in motion? Is it for this purpose that these terrible oaths, these secret plottings, these backyard conspiracies, boycotting, and persecution have taken place? Oh no, no, no we will believe anything so stupid. We may just as reasonably fall in as it is necessary to call out the whole British army for a fox hunt! The "society" is entirely innocent of this, and govern themselves accordingly. If P.P.A. will bravely come out with his proper signature, I may have something more to say to him.

OUR ARMY OF STUDENTS

At Welcoming, Entertainment and Made Happy by Bridge St. Methodist Church.

They crowded down in hundreds, Albert College, Ontario Business College, Belleville Business College and the High School, each vying with the other as to which could turn out the greater number, and each of the nearly five hundred students received to make it a "grand evening" and to enjoy themselves by helping everything to be a good time, and they succeeded. They were first welcomed in the church by a committee, and then over coats and wraps were laid aside, but entering the Sunday School rooms another committee met them with a "welcome" bottle and spread their pleasure at meeting them.
There was a "Christmas week" cordially to these welcome, and a gentlemen and freedom from formality in it all that moved restraint and made every one at home.

To know what to do with five hundred guests nearly all strangers to each other, had been a difficult thing to do under such circumstances, and it was suggested that there would be no lagging in the pleasure, it is indeed a difficult thing to do, and after the first half hour one dropping in to the happy scene was welcomed by the committee, and the entertainment was of the best. The program was of the best, and the entertainment was of the best.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

JAMES WHALEN CHARGED WITH ROB-BERY FROM THE PERSON OF FRANCIS TAYLOR.

Francis Taylor, identified by Taylor—Story of the Crime Under Oath. A Large Amount of Testimony Taken—More Evidence to be Heard.

James Whalen, charged with the robbery of Francis Taylor, in the 13th inst., was brought before Judge Magistrate this morning at 10 for preliminary hearing. The police constable, who was with him, was to accompany the crowd, the council chamber was utilized. The prisoner was detained by Mr. J. G. Porter, L. H.
Henderson and John Williams conducted the case for the crown.

The first witness sworn was Mr. Francis Taylor, who said: He was seventy-four years old; had been residing in Clinton for sixty years, but for the last few weeks he had been in North Adams, Mass., and left on the 10th inst.; came here to visit his son, who was a carpenter and builder, and had $100 when he left North Adams, which he took with him in the savings bank; there was one fifty dollar bill, one $20 and some $10 bills and $5 bills; had $100 when he got here, got to Belleville, 11th inst., and had $100 rolled up in left hand trousers pocket; took $50 on the 13th, leaving $45 in the roll; was standing by a table near the window which looks on Front St.; did not have the roll out of his pocket; again, was around the house in the afternoon, with the exception of going for a share.

Twenty minutes after went out of the front door and into the yard at the north end of the house, and went into the office; about one minute, and went to look at the house, when a man grabbed him, the man grabbing his arm and the first thing he remembered was that the man had his hands on his pockets, and he was told "keep quiet"; the man said "keep quiet"; a boy said "don't hurt the old man"; after the money had been taken he was face to face with the man; the man took part of the money off the roll and then he went down; produced $20 of the $50 bill on the sleeve; man started to run south after he took the money; the prisoner was the man he had seen before, a white man, about 35 years of age, dark, overcoat, white shirt and slouch hat; he picked up the money dropped by man on sidewalk and went into the office and asked his son to count it, saying that if there was not $45 he was robbed; saw a boy during the scene on the outside of the sidewalk about nine feet from the man; which he was satisfied was him.

Cross examined by Mr. Porter—Said his eye sight and hearing were not very good; did not see prisoner before robbery; the man put his hand in his left pocket and he got his hand in his pocket; asked the man who took his hand out of his pocket; thought the money was in his pocket when he put his hand in; man was facing him when he took his hand out of his pocket; did not know whether the man was at his side or behind him when he attacked him; after the man dropped the money he ran by him down street; the robbery was about a quarter to seven.

W. A. Taylor, sworn, said: Remembered the evening of the robbery; did not notice his father going out; heard some men calling for help about twelve miles to seven, but did not go out; father came in the house about two minutes after he heard the cry with money and made in his hand, which he threw down on the counter; he counted the money and then ran to the door and met Officer Morton, and together they started south and ranked two or three houses; but did not see his father's roll.

Cross examined by Mr. Porter—Said his father said "If there was not $45 he was robbed"; found his father's roll in his stable saddle shortly after the robbery; he had a dark overcoat; might have seen him; was Fortune who practiced the robbery.

Robt. Gibson, sworn, said: Was proprietor of Gibson House; knew prisoner several years; saw prisoner a week ago about six o'clock in his bar; prisoner was when he took his hand out of his pocket; asked witness for a quarter and he gave it to him.

Cross examined—Prisoner was quite drunk; would not have given him any more liquor; when sober was a nice honest boy.

Byron Wm, sworn, said: Keph Hub Hotel; knew prisoner about one and one half years; prisoner was in his house on Saturday and left twenty-one minutes to seven. Cross examined—Said prisoner was pretty full; could not offer much evidence to anybody attacking him.

The court adjourned at one o'clock for dinner and resumed at 2 p.m.

Mr. Clapper, sworn, said: On Saturday night came up by blacksmith shop north of the Courthouse house; with two girls, and saw Whalen standing on stoop of blacksmith shop; prisoner called to her; this was about a quarter to seven; prisoner had on the same clothes as those in which he appeared in court; was positive it was Whalen who was robbed.

Cross examined—Was no lifeless sack prisoner.

Frederick Clapper, sworn—Lived on South John at; coming up street on Saturday night last near the corner of Front and Dundas St.; met this prisoner, who ran into him; asked him who was doing, but he made no answer, and kept on going east on the run; thought he was a detective, but was not; never had a quarrel with Whalen.

Frank Smith sworn: Lived on John at; left home on John at, at 6:30 on last Saturday evening and came past the Commercial Hotel; just as he was to Taylor's hotel Whalen came out from under the stoop of the blacksmith shop and came towards him; as he was by the gate, he prisoner came out of it; saw prisoner up against Mr. Taylor at the north door of the hotel; had known Whalen three years; was dressed the same as he was now; it was fifteen minutes he was there.

Cross examined—Whalen was quite drunk; didn't look to see if prisoner was armed; was on the ground; the old man.
The case is in progress.

and the following address by the officers and pupils of Wesley church, Sydney:

R. J. Graham, Esq.:

Dear Sir,—The scholars and teachers of Wesley Sunday school desire to take advantage of this opportunity to convey to you their heartfelt thanks for your valuable services for the last two years, and to place on record their approval of the zeal you have ever shown not only for their welfare and advancement, but for every branch of the church.

We have ever admired your faithfulness and the earnest efforts you have made to instill into the hearts and minds of the scholars and teachers a knowledge of the word and of Him of whom the word testifies.

You have not only taught us the word of life, but your example has been in accord with your teaching, and to-night we desire you to accept our thanks.

We also desire you to accept this chair as a small remembrance.

When you look upon it in the years to come and read in it after the tolls of the day we ask you to remember that the scholars and teachers of Wesley church have all at all ways a warm place in their hearts for you and will ever pray that when the tolls of life are ended you may occupy a place at His right hand and enjoy the rest prepared for them who serve Him.

House yesterday were enlivened by speeches of the "stump" variety. The Temperance party, who addressed the State on the subject of barley, argued the existing rate should be instead of that proposed in the big bill. He said that the rate proposed in the Wilson bill had not taken into consideration the distillation of the brewers and others in the State of New York, who were represented before the Committee on Finance and Money by the United States attorney for the northern district of New York.

Lockwood (Dem., N.Y.) asked Mr. Wilson whether he did not know that the barley fetched in the regular market from 10 to 20 cents a bushel more than American barley. A warm discussion followed and Mr. Wilson concluded with the statement that the bill would include and fully excluded Canada barley and

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Special Services in Holloway St., and the May on the 24th.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in St. Andrew's church yesterday morning, a large number of members being present in spite of the inclement weather and the prevailing storm.
The minister, Rev. M. W. Macdonald, addressed two earnest addresses appropriate to the occasion before and after the communion, lasting about James 4-6, "The growth now grace." At both morning and evening services the choir rendered anthem. The evening subject was justice and mercy and the text was Isaiah 54-55.
We were sure that the judgment of God is according to truth. The annual congrega-

Presbytery of Kingston meets in Kingston to-morrow.

gregations in John at church yesterday, taking for his subject in the morning "The Christian's Duty." In the evening he preached on "The Christian's Duty." In the evening his subject was "God our Guide."
The subject of the evening particularly appropriate and well rendered.

The Ministerial Association held its usual meeting in the Y.M.C.A. parlor this morning. Messrs. Moore, George and Crossley reported the action of the past and the result of their enquiries as to the condition in the treatment of the prisoners. A considerable time was occupied in discussing the subject of Reformatories for habitual drunkards. The further discussion of prison reform was left over. The Rev. Mr. Russell, of Mackinac, Quebec, was invited to address the meeting.

He gave an interesting account of the ignorance and superstition prevailing among the French Canadians and of the result of his mission work.

THE ROBBERY CASE.

A STRONG CASE MADE OUT BY THE CROSS.

Conclusion of the Evidence—The Prisoner Tested from the Time of the Robbery to the Time of the Arrest—Remnants of His Will.

Chief Newton submitted a diagram showing the distance between the principal points connected to the evidence, thus far.

was about half a mile from the station; recognized Mr. Taylor as one of the men; did not see the face of the man who had hold of Mary; he had a round stomach; had a faded forehead, and white scarf; thought it was Whalen. Ran to the police office and told officer Morton; went back, and about a year. Cross-examined—Did not Whalen by the overcoat; did not see prisoner take anything from the old man; he had hold of the old man's right arm.

eight o'clock in his barber shop; came in four and got his hair cut; prisoner looked the hair cut and he gave him the change; and twelve o'clock. Cross-examined—Thought the man was not but he could not recall David Stanger, sworn—He was clerk in a post office and store at the station; saw pay but he had no change; the man changed and Whalen gave him a $5 bill; gave it to boy, who got it changed; witness paid for one cent and gave Whalen the balance; the person who bought the cigars was the prisoner. Cross-examined—A man in prison came in with prisoner between eight and nine o'clock; prisoner was quite drunk.

John Page, sworn—Was in the G.T.R. post office last Saturday and saw a man in there who looked like prisoner; this was a few minutes before seven o'clock; prisoner was very drunk; he had a round stomach and gave him a $5 bill; he changed; he gave prisoner a two dollar Canadian bill in the change; saw the man appear at the station about seven o'clock bringing about a freight train and then asked him what time the passenger train would go to Toronto; he told him 2:45 in the morning; the prisoner went over to the barber shop; could not swear positively that the prisoner was the man; he was in there or not, but thought he was the man.

Cross-examined—Left his home about seventy minutes before seven and arrived at the post office at about five minutes to seven, and the prisoner waited to behind him; prisoner was pretty drunk; he did not know what he was doing.

David Callaghan, sworn—Said he kept a saloon in the Commercial House; prisoner came in with a $5 to get changed; changed the bill, giving a Canadian $2 bill; he produced the $2 bill, which was an American bill. Cross-examined—Said bar was closed, but it was close to seven o'clock.

William O'Keefe, sworn—Lived on Station road not far from the station; he found two $5 bills and one $2 bill; he went back home to tell his wife and on his return he picked up another $5 bill; he showed the money to Father Farrelly and going home he found another $5 bill; on the 10th inst., he found a $20 bill near O'Keefe's house; (witness produced all these bills). The Magistrate highly commended the honesty of the witness.

William Thomas, sworn—Said he found a $5 American bill at the crossing where Lindsay crosses Mill st. on the 14th inst.; did not look for any more.

Yonge st.; about 5:30 on Sunday afternoon he drove to the station and just on the other side of O'Keefe's tannery he found a $10 American bill; (he produced the bill); lay on the north side of the road.

Officer Morton sworn—Was at the station between six and seven; saw prisoner pass going south; Charles Meyer and John Dewberry told him shortly after that an old man was being robbed in front of the Commercial house; went to Whalen's house in consequence of the description given of the man by Mr. Taylor; constable's first prisoner, went to the G.T.R. station; about ten minutes to seven when he got the information; board of Whalen at the station about eleven o'clock, from a watchman; found him in Page's barber shop; arrested him, and brought him to the station; did not hear him when he arrested him; did not handcuff him, but held on to his arm; his overcoat was torn all the way down from the station, and his hands were in his pants pockets; found thirty-five cents on him when searched. Cross-examined—Was not told that Jim Fortune was the man that arrested that night, but was charged with being drunk and disorderly. Whalen was doing there, and he recalled the man.
This being all the evidence for the crown, Mr. Williams asked that the prisoner be committed for trial.

Mr. Porter, acting for the prisoner, asked for an adjournment until Monday, and the Magistrate granted the adjournment.

Whalen was this morning remanded for one week. It is reported that in the meantime the prisoner will, with the as-lost money and at the next hearing throw himself on the mercy of the court.

GOUGH, THE CLOTHIER

That Swindling Game.
It Was Played at Kingston and Belleville —An Arrest at the Latter Place.
The sick gent who did the sponge and shambles got so successfully in this city on Thursday last, worked it on a Kingston doggist on Friday and got $130 out of a groceryman for the articles. On Friday a game was worked in Belleville and the game was arrested. The prisoner, who gave his name as Frank Rogers, was sent to the Toronto authorities about him.
The Recorder says of him: "The prisoner is apparently about twenty or twenty five years of age, smooth face, clean cropped hair, prominent nose slightly turned to one side and has a number of scars on his face." Chief Rose is of the opinion that he is the man Green who recently escaped from the Central prison very mysteriously, and sent the Toronto authorities about him.
One thing is certain, he worked the same game in Kingston, as Chief Rose has information to that effect from the police of that city. He wears the handsomely cut naturally and tall little.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment, which rightly used, the most, who live better, more abundantly and more profitably, with less expenditure, by more promptly applying the world's best product to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embodied in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

It is excellent in its effect in the first case mentioned, and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectively cleansing the system, dissolving colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, whose name is printed on the package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute for it.

IN OLD TIMES.

People overlooked the importance of permanent beneficial effects and were satisfied with the immediate relief, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Ex-Purser on the War Path.

My last letter was unanswerable.

Ex-purser is now using the weapons of a black guard not coward, naïveté, threats and abuse.

From the present of "Purser" in last letter's issue it will be seen that the ex-purser is not an author, and that he is not entitled to a small part of the authorship of "Most Widely."

The senior partner and the junior partner have been dropped out of the authorship. Perhaps a little more will enable the ex-purser to see his way out. In recent articles published by this man, I have been personally attacked in a very abusive and cowardly manner, and my methods of conducting my college have been misrepresented.

What they have published in reference to the "Key and reference" that the real author of "Most Widely" got his business training in an American business college, and that the senior partner of the present firm is a graduate of an American business college, is not strange that these two men who are running the top at should insult the American people by advertising American educational methods as "American education."

They have many things of American origin that they should be proud of.

They have made it their business to have two men whatever measure of success they have had to the use they have made of what they are called "American education."

Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Compound. About a year ago I took a cold and had a violent sore on my lip and with dyspepsia, constipation and debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure them but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Compound, but had not time to do so until I had read of its success in curing such cases. I then procured a bottle and used it according to the directions. In a few days the sore on my lip disappeared and my bowels began to move. In a few more days I was able to eat and sleep as usual. I am now in perfect health and feel that I owe my recovery to Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Compound. I can now recommend it to all who are afflicted with such troubles."—Advertisement.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Mr. Geo. E. Minor's Bible Class Entertain a Large Audience.

The annual concert of Mr. Minor's Bible Class, in Bridge St. Methodist church last evening, was attended by a large and fashionable audience.

An excellent programme was provided, which, to judge from the result of applause, was well received. The evening's entertainment was organized by the Rev. E. N. H. with proper arrangements.

Among the many interesting numbers on the programme, were several songs by Mr. R. A. Shaw, of Toronto, whose fine renditions being given in a strong and rich voice.

Mrs. Jackson, of the Philadelphia College of Music, as a shortness of the highest standard, was the leading attraction. She was dressed in a very appropriate Greek costume, and her beautiful voice was much appreciated by the audience.

Mrs. Jackson, in her performance, showed in her facial expression, and while artistic, she has some of the stiffness, which artists sometimes assume or learn in their training. Her first number last night was not due to put her in touch with the audience, and yet was so skilfully rendered as to captivate them.

At each succeeding number she grew in their favor and achieved a reputation which will secure for her large audiences whenever she returns. All that the Toronto press had said of Mr. Shaw was fully borne out; he has a rich, full, strong, sweet tenor voice, and to the charms of a fine presence, distinct enunciation and an ease or abandon that makes a pleasure to see him, even when taking his highest notes, as well as to hear him.

Mr. Shaw's success was well to be heard him, and he was so skilfully rendered as to captivate them. At each succeeding number she grew in their favor and achieved a reputation which will secure for her large audiences whenever she returns.

The following numbers composed the programme: Cornet solo, piano accompaniment, Mr. Pearson and Miss Hunter; Recitation, "Jack the Fisherman," Miss Jackson; Mr. R. A. Shaw sang.

With this advertisement we commence the Wall Paper Campaign for 1894. We are going to make a hard, vigorous fight for a large season's business in laborer decorations, and by watching this space closely in the future, you will read some points on the practical decoration of a house that cannot help but put you in the way of doing up your home, cheaply and artistically.

Apportion to this, our first hint to you is to not delay your work too long with the stock like we always carry, and with the paper hanging with little or no work to engage them, now is the time to have your work done and done properly. At the present writing we are in a position to undertake at once the contract to paper 500 houses, including every room in the house from the kitchen to the drawing room, and with the most modern effect.

We have the latest schemes known to the Wall Paper world for facilitating the handling Wall Paper.

We can give you better attention now than during the rush later on in the spring; we can give you as close prices as you can get any time during the present year. We can show you over 500 designs to choose from, and coupled with this you can get your paper hanger at an hour's notice.

Do not wait till house cleaning time; Paper Hanging is not simply house cleaning, it's house decoration, Art and furnishing too. Think it over!

DEAR SIRS—I had a very sore throat for over a week and tried several remedies, but without success. I then bought a box of Norway Pine Syrup, which I finished with great success. I think it has benefited me for a three weeks past in this chest, as well as bronchitis, and throat and lung troubles.

Wahle, who killed a Comanche in 1883, set free.

Jan. 27.—(Miami) Wahle, 28 years old, who, in 1883, was sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of a Comanche, was released from prison today. Wahle was the brother-in-law of the man who was hanged for the crime. The brother was released because he will go to jail for treatment.

PRISON HUNTER WILL ACQUIT.

The Court Wharton a stain on his character.

TEXAS, Jan. 27.—At the adjourned session of the Court today, John Darnen, charged with the murder of Angus MacNeil, Mr. Meritt for the first time said that he believed he was not calling any witnesses, and that he would acquit the prisoner. He was discharged at his preliminary hearing.

Magistrate Daly said he was to acquit John Darnen. No one was to be heard. He said he would not in any way connect him with the murder. He said that he would let him go and left the room without a stain on his character. He did not think anyone was to be heard. He said he was supported for this matter.

He said that he was not an officer.
